Madame Portia ELTVEDT
President
American Club of Paris

Monsieur Patrick FAURE
Président
France-Amériques

cordially invite their members and friends to an evening lecture entitled

Going beyond ‘Demain, dès l’aube, …’ :
Love, Life and Hope for Victor Hugo

by

Marva Barnett
Professor at the University of Virginia
Author of Victor Hugo on Things That Matter, Yale University Press, 2009
http://faculty.virginia.edu/marva/VHTTM/VHTTM.htm

Ms. Barnett will explore the contemporary and personal nature of Victor Hugo’s vision and share insights she gained in writing the book.
"Despite the tragedies in his life, Hugo does have an optimistic view of the human capacity for progress," Barnett says. "Hugo sees that life is full of antitheses. Life is, and human experience is, full of happiness and sadness, good and bad, ups and downs; and so to separate tragedy from comedy is artificial and unreal."

Refreshments and book signing to follow the lecture
(Books will be available for purchase.)

Thursday, February 18, 2010
at 7 pm
at France Amériques 9 avenue Franklin Roosevelt – Paris 75008

REGISTRATION

by Professor Marva Barnett, Thursday, February 18 at 7 pm

Monsieur, Madame : .................................................................................................................................
Fonction : ................................................................................................................................................
Société : ...................................................................................................................................................
Adresse ....................................................................................................................................................
E-mail ..........................................................................................................................................................

FA and American Club of France members : 10 euros   Guest : 15 euros

Thank you for returning this registration form with your check to the order of France-Amériques before February 15, 2010

Paiement en ligne : www.france-ameriques.org puis rubriques « Événements »