Virginia International Security Colloquium
Spring 2011 Schedule

Seminars are held on Mondays from 12:00-1:50 PM in Gibson S-296.

January 31 Allan C. Stam, University of Michigan
* A New Understanding of the 1990-94 Rwandan Civil War
  * Special location: Gibson S-441

February 14 Jessica L. Weeks, Cornell University
* The Democratic Peace: An Experimental Approach

February 21 Charles A. Kupchan, Georgetown University
* The Rise of the Rest: Alternatives to the Western Way

March 14 Andrew H. Kydd, University of Wisconsin
* Strategic Stability With Small Nuclear Arsenals

March 21 Jonathan D. Caverley, Northwestern University
* Domestic Influences on Israeli Warfighting in Lebanon and Gaza

March 28 Daryl G. Press, Dartmouth College
* Keir A. Lieber, Georgetown University
  * How Much is Enough? Schools of Nuclear Deterrence Theory

April 4 Sarah E. Croco, University of Maryland
* Leader Culpability and Domestic Punishment in Wartime

April 18 Charles L. Glaser, George Washington University
* Realistic Optimism About China’s Rise

April 25 Vipin Narang, MIT
* Regional Power Nuclear Postures and International Conflict
  * Rescheduled from February 28

May 2 Peter D. Feaver, Duke University
* Civil-Military Relations and the Iraq/Afghanistan Surge Decisions

Papers can be downloaded at faculty.virginia.edu/visc/.